Lisa Nadine Petitt, A Mothers Voice in the Fight

Heather Walton, A Woman in Recovery

Since 2004, more than 6,000 people have died in New Jersey due to heroin. With heroin use in New Jersey tripling national statistics, it is more important than ever for community members to be informed. Panelists will discuss:

- Opioid misuse, leading to heroin use
- Impact on academics, school life, and peers
- Treatment, recovery, and supports which are available for the patient and family
- Drug laws and recent trends in the courts
- Impact on the family
- The warning signs for drug addiction
- Long road to recovery-There is hope
